Mr. Brewer moved that Senate Bill No. 1362 be passed on third and final consideration.

Mr. Miller moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Bill No. 1362 by adding the following Sections 2, 3, 4 and 5 after Section 1 thereof and renumbering Section 2 thereof accordingly:

Section 2. Section 13-20-102(12), Tennessee Code Annotated, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "authority" and before the word "issued" the following words and symbols:

, or its delegee or assignee,

Section 3. Section 13-20-205(a)(3), Tennessee Code Annotated, is hereby amended by inserting after the phrase "payable from such special fund or funds" and before the phrase "or at such time" the following words and symbols:

, other than a refinancing by ther authority, or its delegee or assignee, of any such bonds, loans or other indebtedness,

Section 4. Section 13-20-213, Tennessee Code Annotated, is hereby amended by deleting the second sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

An authority is hereby authorized to delegate or assign to a municipality or other public body any or all of the powers or functions of the authority with respect to the planning, undertaking, or financing of an urban renewal project or projects and/or to assign, transfer, and/or convey to any such municipality or public body any or all of its rights with respect to or interest in one or more urban renewal projects in the area in which such municipality or public body is authorized to act, and such municipality or public body is hereby authorized to carry out or perform such powers or functions in the place and stead of the authority, including but not limited to (i) the issuance of bonds or other obligations for any purpose for which the authority could issue its bonds with respect to any such project or projects, (ii) the assumption of any bonds or other obligations of the authority with respect to any such project or projects and the issuance of its bonds or other obligations for the purpose of funding or refunding any such bonds or obligations so assumed, (iii) the receipt and collection of those tax revenues described in Section 13-20-205(a)(2) hereof, and (iv) the pledging of such revenues to the payment of principal of and interest on bonds or other obligations issued by the municipality or other public body pursuant to this Section and Part 6 hereof. The delegation or assignment of any of the powers or functions of the authority with respect to any urban renewal projects or the assignment, transfer, or conveyance of any such projects as provided herein shall not require an amendment to any existing urban renewal plan adopted in connection with any such projects.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 6-57-301 and 6-57-302 hereof or any other provision of law to the contrary, any bonds or other obligations issued or assumed by any municipality or other public body pursuant to the delegation and assignment hereinabove described shall be authorized, issued, and sold in accordance with Part 6 of this Chapter and secured by and payable from such revenues as provided in Part 6 hereof, which Part shall constitute full, complete, and independent authority for the issuance of such bonds or other obligations, as fully and with the same power as the authority could have issued such bonds or obligations; provided, however, any such municipality or other public body shall be authorized to secure said bonds or other obligations by pledging its full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds or obligations. In the event such pledge of full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power of the municipality or public body is given, any holder or holders of the bonds or obligations, including a trustee or trustees for holders of such bonds or obligations, shall have the right, in addition to all other rights, by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce his or their rights against the municipality of public body, and the governing body of such municipality or public body and any officer, agent or employee thereof, including, but not limited to, the right to require the municipality or public body and the governing body and any proper officer, agent or employee thereof, to assess, levy and collect taxes and other revenues and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such taxes, revenues and charges. The taxes herein authorized to be pledged shall be levied without limit as to rate or amount upon all taxable property within the municipality or public body.

Section 5. Section 13-20-601, Tennessee Code Annotated, is hereby amended by adding the following sentence to the last paragraph hereof:

Nothing herein contained shall prohibit any municipality or other public body from pledging its full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power pursuant to Section 13-20-213 of Part 2 of this Chapter.

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

Thereupon, Senate Bill No. 1362, as amended, passed its third and final consideration by the following vote:

House Bill No. 1548--To create state forestry commission.

Mr. Hillis moved that House Bill No. 1548 be passed on third and final consideration.

Mr. Hillis moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend House Bill No. 1548 by deleting Sections 1 through 37 in their entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

Section 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 11, Chapter 4, is amended by deleting in their entirety Sections 11-4-102 through 11-4-104, by redesignating Section 11-4-101 to be Section 11-4-104, and by adding the following new Sections 11-4-101 through 11-4-103:

Section 11-4-101. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Department" means the state department of conservation;

(2) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the state department of conservation;

(3) "Commission" means the state forestry commission;

(4) "Division" means the division of forestry within the department of conservation;

(5) "State forester" means the director of the division of forestry; and

(6) "State forests" means any and all areas of land owned by the state and administered under the jurisdiction of the department of conservation, which by reason of their nature are suited to continuous public forestry, including timber production, forestry experimentation and research, watershed protection, wildlife conservation, forest recreation or which because of geographical location and character are suitable bases to provide a conservation service to privately owned lands for the general upbuilding of self-renewing natural resources. All such areas of land shall be classified as state forests and administered as integral parts of the state forest system through the division.

Section 11-4-102.

(a) There is created within the department a state forestry commission. The commission shall consist of seven (7) members each of whom shall be citizens of the state of Tennessee, eighteen (18) years of age or older. Each member shall be appointed by the governor and shall be confirmed by joint resolution of the general assembly prior to beginning his term of office.

(b) The initial appointments of the commission shall be made by the governor in the following manner:

(i) One (1) of the members shall be the owner of not more than one hundred (100) acres of forestland within the state;

(ii) One (1) of the members shall be the owner of not less than one hundred (100) acres or more than five thousand (5,000) acres of forestland within the state;

(iii) One (1) of the members shall be the owner or representative of an owner of five thousand (5,000) acres or more of forestland within the state;

(iv) One (1) of the members shall be a representative of a pulp and paper industry operating in this state;

(v) One (1) of the members shall be a representative of the hardwood products industry operating in this state;

(vi) One (1) of the members shall be an active member of a statewide conservation organization having as one (1) of its principal objectives the conservation and use of the forest resource; and

(vii) The remaining member shall be appointed by the governor from the public at large.

Two (2) members shall be appointed for a period of two (2) years, three (3) members shall be appointed for a period of four (4) years, and two (2) members shall be appointed for a period of six (6) years, as designated by the governor in his appointments. At all times at least three (3) of the members shall hold a forestry degree from an institution accredited by the Society of American Foresters and shall have at least five (5) years experience in forest related activity.

(c) Upon the expiration of such terms, appointments thereafter shall be for a period of five (5) years and until their respective successors in office have been appointed and confirmed. A member shall serve no more than two (2) terms. Initial appointments shall be made and confirmed by March 1, 1985 and members shall serve until July 1 of each year in which their term expires.

(d) If a vacancy occurs, the governor shall appoint a person to fill the remainder of the unexpired term. Such an appointee shall serve only as a non-voting member until confirmed as provided above. The commissioner of the state department of conservation, the commissioner of the state department of agriculture and the executive director of the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency shall serve as non-voting members of the commission.

(e) The commission shall elect from its membership a chairman, vice-chairman and a secretary who shall serve for a period of one (1) year. The commission shall meet at such time and place as designated by the commission or the chairman thereof, but the chairman of the commission shall call a meeting at least four (4) times a year. The first meeting shall be called by the commissioner of conservation within sixty (60) days after the appointment and confirmation of the members. The division shall provide the commission with suitable meeting space and any necessary clerical assistance.

(f) The commission members shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses while engaged in the work of the commission. All reimbursement for travel expenses shall be in accordance with the provisions of the comprehensive travel regulations as promulgated by the department of finance and administration and approved by the attorney general.

(g) It is declared to be the legislative intent that the commission shall place first and foremost the welfare of the state's forest resource in the commission's planning and decisions, and to encourage the multiple development and use of the state's forest resources to the benefit of all of the citizens of Tennessee, including but not limited to, the creation of a comprehensive long-range management plan to intergrate the division of forestry's efforts and to implement and encourage full utilization of Tennessee's forestlands and other related resources with sound conservation principles.

It is further declared that the commission be given authority by and through this act to formulate state forestry policies and that the commissioner shall be responsible for administering those policies and implementing those programs, through the division.

(h) The commission shall have and exercise the power, duty and responsibility to formulate and adopt state forestry programs which shall include the following:

(1) adequate fire protection for all state and privately owned forestland within the state;

(2) the production and distribution of high quality forest tree seedlings to meet the reforestation needs in the state;

(3) forest management assistance to landowners;

(4) educational programs for the purpose of promoting a better understanding of forest activities, values and benefits to be received from forests by the citizens of the state;

(5) distribution of information concerning the state's timber and forest resources;

(6) management of state owned forestlands;

(7) cooperative agreements with the federal government with respect to the protection of timbered and forest producing land from fire, insects and disease; the acquisition of forestlands to be developed, administered and managed as state forests; the production, procurement and distribution of trees; the implementation of an educational program; the assistance of the owners of farms to establish, improve and renew woodlots and other valuable forest growths; and the collection and publication of data relative to timber and forest resources or any other program which will assist the commission in fulfilling the purposes of this act.

(i) The state forestry commission is directed and authorized to perform the following duties and functions:

(1) to submit to the commissioner the names of three (3) qualified individuals for the position of state forester. The commissioner shall appoint from the three (3) nominees one (1) individual to serve as state forester. The person so appointed shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner; to approve the annual budget as submitted to the commission by the state forester. The commission shall review the budget proposal and submit its approved budget request to the commissioner for his consideration. Any recommended changes made in the budget request by the commissioner must be justified in writing and attached to the commission's budget request when submitted to the department of finance and administration. During the budgetary process, the commission shall have the opportunity to meet with the department of finance and administration and both the house and senate committees on finance, ways and means relative to the forestry budget proposal as recommended by the commission;

(3) to make an annual report to the governor, the commissioner, the house committee on conservation and environment and the senate committee on energy and natural resources or their successor committees concerning the activities and accomplishments of the commission for the preceding year;

(4) to recommend to the general assembly, legislation to protect, conserve, produce or make available forest and other related resources of the state of Tennessee;

(5) to approve the division's forest management plan for the state's forest resources;

(6) to establish state forestry policies which will enable the division to manage and maintain programs of fire protection, reforestation, landowner assistance, utilization, marketing, communications, education and information and forestland management of the state owned lands; and

(7) to include in budget recommendations those goals and objectives to implement the state forestry policies.

(j) The commission shall have access to any governmental data or information necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

Section 11-4-103.

(a) The commission shall submit to the commissioner the names of three (3) qualified individuals for the position of state forester. From these nominees, one (1) individual shall be selected for such position. The person so appointed shall have not less than five (5) years experience in the management of state, federal or private forestland and shall have as a minimum a bachelor's degree in forestry from an institution accredited by the Society of American Foresters.

(b) The state forester shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner and shall be paid a salary as approved by the state department of personnel. Unless otherwise provided by the commissioner the existing state forester shall serve as the state forester under this act and the commission shall not submit the names of nominees pursuant to Section 11-4-102 (i) (1) until such time as a vacancy occurs in such position. All reimbursement for travel expenses shall be in accordance with the provisions of the comprehensive travel regulations as promulgated by the department of finance and administration and approved by the attorney general.

(c) The state forester, under the general supervision of the commissioner shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

(1) to have knowledge of all forest interest and all matters pertaining to forestry within the state;

(2) to select and employ the personnel of the division in accordance with personnel regulations as established by the department of personnel;

(3) to supervise the employees of the division;

(4) to implement and administer the programs and policies of the division;

(5) to take such action as is authorized by law to prevent and extinguish forest fires;

(6) to enforce laws pertaining to forest woodlands and recommend prosecution for violators;

(7) to promote educational activities in the interest of forest conservation;

(8) to cooperate with private landowners in planning for protection, management and replacement of forests;

(9) to compile statistics of forest conditions, resources and management programs;

(10) to protect and manage lands donated to or purchased by the state for forestry preserves and all lands reserved as state forests;

(11) to recommend plans for improving the state programs of forest protection, management and forestation;

(12) to cooperate with the public and private forestry community, all government entities and private organizations to promote the efficient utilization of the state's forest resource;

(13) to prepare and submit the annual budget request for the division to the commissioner and to the commission;

(14) to post at advantageous locations, notices directing attention to the danger of forest fires and to the importance of preventing and extinguishing forest fires;

(15) to collect and distribute data relative to forest problems and forest conditions and to supervise the enforcement of forestry laws;

(16) to cooperate with federal government, state departments and landowners in such a manner as will assure the state the perpetuation of its forests, the promotion of tree growth and tree planting and the redemption of wasteland for agricultural and forest purposes; and

(17) to prepare for distribution among schools of the state such printed matter relative to forestry as should encourage the appreciation on the part of future citizens of the state of the importance of forest protection and soil reclamation.

Section 2. The state forester is directed to study a reorganization of Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 11, Chapter 4, and to submit such revision to the commission and to the commissioner for their approval. The revision, as approved, shall be submitted to the Tennessee Code Commission and to the general assembly for action during the 94th General Assembly.

Section 3. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Section 4. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1985, the public welfare requiring it.

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hillis moved to amend as follows:
